The Twilight Zone (1959–1965) is an American television series created by Rod Serling. The original series ran for five seasons on CBS from 1959 to 1964 and remains in syndication to this day. As an anthology series, each episode presents its own separate story, often a morality play, involving people who face unusual or extraordinary circumstances, therefore entering the "Twilight Zone."

The Apprentice 10 is the tenth installment of the United States version of international franchise and reality game series, The Apprentice. For this particular season, the show departed from Celebrity Apprentice and returned to its precursor, featuring unknowns as apprentices instead of celebrities. Not since season six, during the 2006–07 television season, did the show use this format.

Published continually since 1998, "NEWS YOU CAN USE" was a Blog before "Blog" was even a word! Its intention has been to help inform the football coach and the interested football observer on a wide variety of topics, usually - but not always - related in some way to coaching or leadership. It contains news and views often (trigger alert!) highly opinionated but intended to be thought-provoking.

I corroborate everything Marc said about the skies over Tucson yesterday, 4/26/18. And, the day before, 4/25/18, the sky was "clear" for much of the day; in the early afternoon the lines started to appear, and by late afternoon it was the same artificial cloud cover that always appears after this activity.
